

Drama Llama November 20, 2020

Membership

How many organizations are you a member of? If you did a comprehensive listing, there would be a few of note.

But are you a Member of SDA? Here at SDA, membership means more than just belonging to another organization. SDA provides the following benefits for you!

1. Free unlimited borrowing of all drama and arts curricular and extra-curricular resources and thousands of one act plays, full length plays, musicals, monologues, readers theatre, improv, and more! Check out SDA's Mary Ellen Burgess Library on our website.
2. Member rates for Conferences.
3. Access to student programs such as the SDA/SMFA Spoken Word E-Festival, SDA Playwriting Competition, workshops.
4. Free curricular and extracurricular workshops and access programs, i.e., New Initiative Grant and Diversity Grant.
5. Free PD for directors, writers, festival participants, hosts, and adjudicators.
6. Access to unique programs, i.e., Regional, Middle Years, Provincial and Virtual Theatre Festival. These are uniquely developed for Saskatchewan participants.
7. Free access to all SDA publications including Drama Llama Newsletter.
8. E-mail Q&A to the Provincial Office to answer your drama related questions.
9. Volunteer opportunities.
10. Drama Mentorship programs.

Our membership benefits are better than ever! If you already enjoy SDA's programs, resource, and services pass this information to your colleagues. Remember to renew your membership and join us for another exciting year with SDA today!

If you need more information on our programs, resources, and services, send us an email to dramainfo@sasktel.net.

Check out SDA's Resources page on our website. Click on Resources and you'll find a list of many on-line resources, monologue sites, funding sites, and more!

Looking for help presenting Virtual Theatre? Wanting to do Spoken Word activities? SDA has information on its website - www.saskdrmaa.com.
