

Saskatchewan Drama Association

Proudly Presents

Region 4 Drama Festival

March 20 – 21, 2026

Generously Hosted by Sacred Heart High School
280 Gladstone Avenue N.
Yorkton

THANK YOU!!!

Principal, staff,
volunteers, and
students

Sacred Heart High School, Yorkton

Hosting a Saskatchewan Drama Association Regional Festival requires significant work from the administration, staff, and students at the hosting schools. The SDA could not provide Festivals across the province involving over 5,000 students each year without the host school's help. The SDA Board of Directors thanks the community of Yorkton for providing all Festival Region 4 participants with such a warm welcome.

A special thank you to Mary-Anne Maduck
Festival Host Coordinators
and Sarah Kirschman, Stage Coordinator.

Note: All subject matter in the plays presented at this festival has the approval of the principal of the school presenting the play.

Bradley Hayward

Front of House Adjudicator

Bradley Hayward has been involved with the SDA for over 25 years, first as a student and now as an adult. He grew up in Oxbow and acted in his very first SDA Drama Festival way back in 1993. From that moment forward, he was hooked on the theatre. He continued to participate in drama festivals as an actor, director, playwright and stage manager, winning many awards for multiple disciplines, including the Mary Ellen Burgess Award two years in a row. He performed at the 1997 Provincial Festival in The Flattering Word. He graduated from high school in 1998 and went on to get a degree in screenwriting; however, he never lost his passion for high school theatre and eventually turned his attention to writing plays for students. Currently, he has written more than 68 published plays, many of which have been produced worldwide, including dozens at various regional festivals across Saskatchewan. His plays, I Don't Want to Talk About It, Selfie, Laughing Stock, Epic Fail, Drama Geeks, Vamp Ire, and The Last Fill, have all advanced to SDA's Provincial Festival. The Last Fill won the Best Overall Production at SDA's 2019 Provincial Festival. In addition to writing, Bradley has worked for the SDA as a front-of-house adjudicator at many regional festivals, served as the front-of-house clinician at the Middle Years Festival, has been the front-of-house for SDA's Provincial Festival, and has facilitated many acting and writing workshops. He is profoundly inspired by the high level of talent and enthusiasm of the students he encounters each year.

Michael Koops

Backstage Adjudicator

Michael Koops is an experienced educator, theatre artist, and adjudicator with a deep-rooted passion for drama and performance. With a Bachelor of Arts Education (Drama Minor) and over two decades of experience teaching and directing theatre, Michael has taught drama at both the high school and university levels, including courses in drama education at the University of Regina. He has served as a board member for the Saskatchewan Drama Association and hosted multiple regional drama festivals. His theatre credits include portraying Francis Lemieux, the defense lawyer in The Trial of Louis Riel, as well as stage-managing the historic production. Michael is currently pursuing his Doctorate in Education, focusing on Embodied Creative Spaces, exploring how environment and creativity intersect. As an adjudicator, he brings a wealth of knowledge in performance, staging, and audience engagement, ensuring an enriching experience for participants and audiences alike. Michael is thrilled to be adjudicating this year!
